

Coach Job Description

Position Profile

Coaching a Girls on the Run® program is the most rewarding way to get involved with Girls on the Run. You get to experience the program first hand, feel a sense of accomplishment that you have made a difference in the lives of girls and have a ton of fun with your team of coaches and incredible girls.

Job Summary/Responsibilities:

The Head Coach is a volunteer position that works with a team of coaches to facilitate the Girls on the Run® curriculum to program participants. This position works closely with the Council Director and entails approximately 4 hours per week with additional time required on two to three weekend days for: a one day six hour training; a community race event; and for First Aid/CPR training, if necessary.

Major responsibilities include: preparing, organizing, and supervising the weekly lessons; leading the program participants through each lesson; serving as a role model and mentor; coaching program participants on proper stretching, running form and hydration; attending a 5k running race with program participants and other volunteers; attending 3 to 4 coaches meetings with the Director during the season; interacting with parents of program participants; planning and coordinating the end of season celebration and understanding and believing in the mission of the organization and acting as a spokesperson for the program.

This volunteer position may be used as a service learning project, internship, or other college credit project upon agreement of the college/university and Director.
